Spectrum HR Solutions Recognized Among Top 100 Regional Minority Businesses

Receives Award at November 6, 2008 Ceremony

Baltimore, MD (11/03/2008) – Spectrum HR Solutions is proud to announce that Brenda McChriston has received the prestigious Top 100 Minority Business Enterprise Award. This program is designed to acknowledge and pay tribute to outstanding women and minority business owners in Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia. The awards ceremony will take place at the Inn and Conference Center at University of Maryland University College in Adelphi, Maryland on Thursday, November 6th.

“Spectrum HR Solutions is proud to be recognized as a Top 100 minority business,” said Brenda McChriston, President of Spectrum HR Solutions. “With many years of service to the Baltimore and Washington, D.C region, Spectrum HR Solutions is committed to providing continued top-notch services to our clients through strategic and innovative human resources practices.”

Spectrum HR Solutions, a Howard County-based human resources consulting firm with an office in Baltimore, is focused on helping organizations develop change management strategies that allows them to profitably grow within their given industries. Our primary goal is to help companies improve the effectiveness of their human resources operations. Spectrum HR Solutions specializes in HR operations improvement, training and development, compensation and benefits.

A panel of distinguished judges chose finalists based on entrepreneurs that demonstrated outstanding achievement in four key areas: eligibility, entrepreneurship, professionalism and community contributions. This year’s ceremony host organizations were the University of Maryland University College, Southwest Airlines, the Governor’s Office of Minority Affairs and the Maryland Department of Transportation.

“Spectrum HR Solutions represents the best of what our region’s minority business community has to offer,” said Sharon R. Pinder, founder of the Top 100 MBE Awards Ceremony. “This award is the culmination of sacrifice, dedication and hard work and will inspire future minority business entrepreneurs to strive for the same level of success.”
